

HANNIBAL DAILY JOURNAL.

TERMS OF THE DAILY JOURNAL.
In Advance. $3 for three months.
FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 22, 1893.
O. CLEMENS, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

We are authorized to announce CHARLES D. BOURNE, as a candidate for the office of CLERK OF THE HANNIBAL COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, at the next August election.

INTERESTING FROM LOUISVILLE.

We take the following extracts from a letter dated at Louisville, April 13th. The writer left Hannibal a short time since. We hope our friend will continue his correspondence:

"We arrived in port here on Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. Found the Ohio in fine navigable style, enabling us to come over the Falls without the least difficulty. I find but little news of interest here, and shall, in consequence, make this, my first epistle, somewhat hasty. In passing along Main street, in this city, I find the Louisville Hotel, which was burned down last winter, still lying in ruins, but active preparations are being made to rebuild it. Though in the meantime, a large new addition having been made to the Hotel on Sixth street last Fall, the proprietor has never been compelled to discontinue operations, but has been enabled to accommodate, in the very best style, all those who have favored him with a call.

"The large Masonic Hall on Fourth street, which was commenced about eighteen months since, is not at present making any progress towards completion. What the cause of the delay is, I have not as yet learned. I notice a great many valuable improvements in various parts of the city. The business men on Main street, particularly, are manifesting a spirit characteristic of the present age—old business houses are being removed, and new and splendid ones being put up in their stead.

We have now running from our city to Wheeling, a daily line of steamers, forming a connection with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. They are all of the very first class of steamers, and well officered. It is called the "Union Line." Through tickets from Louisville to Baltimore are sold at $11, and from Louisville to Philadelphia or Washington, at $12.

The "Telegraph No. 3," a Louisville and Cincinnati packet, left this port yesterday morning six minutes before 8 o'clock, on a trial trip to Cincinnati. By telegraphic dispatch last night, I understand that she made the run to Cincinnati in 9 hours and 53 minutes, which is the quickest trip on record. The "Telegraph" now wears the "horns."

MUSIC.

All the works of nature are vocal with the praise of God. Then how important it is that we, his creatures, should cultivate our musical talents. It is now considered an essential part of a finished education, and is one of the most refining and ennobling studies we have. There is nothing better calculated to elevate the social feelings of the domestic circle. Some people think there is no use in learning music—that it is time thrown away; but if they would only cultivate their voices, and instead of spending their evenings in idle chat, and using their tongues to no purpose, produce melodious sounds, accompanied by some instrument, I think they would soon advocate the science of music, if it be only the chirping of a cricket, the warbling of a bird or the rustling of leaves.—For my part I think there is even music in the rustling of a new silk dress!

HALESIA.

PALMYRA WHIG.—Where is the Palmyra Whig? We would like to see it just now—send us the Whig. If the Hannibal papers quote it rightly, we cannot fully comprehend it.

If Palmyra desires to die for the benefit of Hannibal, we have no right to deny her that privilege. If milk-and-oiler is the policy of Palmyra, we desire them to drink it themselves; and hope they will wait till we shall strike at them before they kick at us. Now is the time which will decide the fate of Palmyra.

An explosion of wit took place the other day in the Quincy Whig office, which blew up the press, knocked down the roller boy, and so dreadfully injured the editor that he is not expected to survive. The following, taken from the Whig, is a daguerreotype of the idea before it exploded:

They laid the corner stone of a lamp post at Hannibal, the other day, with the appropriate ceremonies. Great excitement.

CHEAP STORE.

Mr. S. M. Moore is doing a large business—there is a perfect rush at his store all the time. Examine the quality of his goods, enquire the prices, if you have not already, and you will be convinced that he deserves success.

We noticed in the Palmyra Whig of the 21st, a call signed by thirty of her prominent citizens, for a meeting to be held in Palmyra on the 30th of this month, for the purpose of adopting speedy measures for the construction of "a plank road or roads from the town of Palmyra to some point or points west, in the counties of Shelby and Knox."

Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad.

The contractors for the construction of this road (Messrs. Duff & Learned.) have just completed the examination of the several offers made them for contracts on the twenty-five miles west of this city. The number of contractors from abroad was quite numerous, and the competition for the contracts was consequently very spirited. The entire grading on the above portion of the road has been let to energetic and efficient men, the greater portion of it to M. Sizer, and there can be no doubt it will be prosecuted with an efficiency that will secure its early completion. The masonry has been divided between three different companies, Messrs. Elliot, Dyck & Seonery and Newmon & Passmore—the preference having been given to persons familiar with that kind of work.

From the prompt manner in which the road is being undertaken, we feel assured it will be rapidly and permanently built, and twelve months from this time (with the co-operation of all parties interested in this great enterprise), the road will probably be in successful operation for a considerable distance west of this city.

TOWN ELECTION.—The election on Monday last resulted in the choice of the following named persons as the Board of Trustees for the present year, viz: Thomas E. Thompson, John Valiant, A. D. Sprague, W. H. Claggett, Jacob Sorey.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees on Tuesday evening last, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year, viz:

Thomas E. Thompson, Chairman of Board
W. S. Means, Clerk.
R. P. Bradley, Market & Weigh Master.
Morgan Hart, Assessor.
Edward McCabe, Attorney.
Morgan Hart, Constable and Collector.
Ambrose Weaver, Sexton of Cemetery.

§ 7. The mayor and aldermen of any city, and the selectmen of any town, whenever complaint shall be made to them that a breach of the conditions of the bond given by any person appointed under this act, has been committed, shall notify the person complained of, and if upon hearing of the parties it shall appear that any breach has been committed, they shall revoke and make void his appointment. And whenever a breach of any bond given to the inhabitants of any city or town in pursuance of any of the provisions of this act shall be made known to the mayor and aldermen, or selectmen, or shall in any manner come to their knowledge, they or some one of them shall, at the expense and for the use of such city or town, cause the bond to be put in suit in any court proper to try the same.

And whenever a default shall be had of any recognition, arising under this act, scire facias shall be issued, returnable at the next term, and the sums shall not be committed, unless for good cause satisfactory to the court.

§ 9. § 10. All cases arising under this act, whether by action, indictment, or complaint, which shall come before the superior court, either by appeal or original entry, shall take precedence in said court of all other business, except those criminal cases in which the parties are under arrest, awaiting a trial; and the court and prosecuting officer shall not have authority to enter a nolle prosequi, or to grant a continuance in any case arising under this act; either before or after the verdict, except where the purposes of justice shall require it.

Andrew Jackson Davis and others propose a Convention to investigate the origin and inspiration of the Bible, at Hartford on the 2d day of June. We haven't heard that the American Bible Society has concluded to "stop the press" to await the result of this discussion.—[N. Y. Tribune.]
